To help singles understand their Tinder match's love style, Nona Uppal shares insights and exciting date ideas tailored to each love style, to help Tinder users plan a fun and meaningful Valentine's Day date.

1. Time Together: If their love style is Time Together, they eagerly anticipate one-on-one plans. Whether it's virtual game nights, or binge-watching their favorite shows together, it's all about creating epic shared experiences and building deep connections.
2. Thoughtful Gestures: This love style is all about showing your date that they live rent-free in your thoughts. Making them feel cherished and remembered with a heartfelt text, a virtual doodle, or a funny meme will leave a lasting impression.
3. Presents: If they are the type who love to receive gifts, let your presents speak volumes! Whether it's a customized playlist, a surprise meal delivery, or a personalized K-pop band t-shirt, show your affection through thoughtful gifts.
4. Touch: If hand-holding, hugs, and cuddles are their thing, touch is probably their love style. Even without words, your touch says it all which lets your Tinder match know that they're on your mind. Plan a cozy outdoor picnic or a romantic beach stroll, but always respect boundaries and ensure your date is comfortable with your affectionate gestures.

5. Compliments: If compliments are their love style, they would expect you to notice and appreciate the little things! Consider creating a scrapbook filled with cherished memories or simply take a moment to verbally express your admiration for your Tinder date's unique qualities. Authenticity is key
