

Tinder Reveals the Best Cities to be Single in India

Tinder Reveals the top 6 Cities with the most Activity on Tinder

Tinder, the world's most popular app for meeting new people is dedicated to you living your best single life, and they know the city you live in might make a difference. So, they crunched some numbers, pulled some data and did some digging to find the cities in India with one thing in common: the most active community on Tinder.

Since they were doing the digging, they also decided to check which cities Swipe Right the most. And the results are in.

The first list is the list of cities with the most activity on Tinder (this means they are swiping the most, i.e. are the most active), the second list reflects cities with the highest rate of right-swipes – meaning they are swiping right on other users the most.

How did your city fare on the Swipe Board? Not to start any beef, but did your neighbouring city do better? Check out the full list below.

PS: If you're looking to move, maybe Tinder can help in deciding where to.
